Teens For Christ Doctrinal Statement

1. We teach the 66 books of the Bible to be the verbally and plenary inspired Word of God in the original autographs. As such, it is both infallible and inerrant and the only infallible rule of faith and practice for Christians, both individually and corporately. (Matt. 5:18; Jn. 10:35; 2 Tim. 3:16; Heb. 4:12; 2 Pet. 1:20-21).
2. We teach that there is only one God, perfect in all His attributes, eternally existing in three uncreated Persons: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, each equally deserving full worship and obedience (Deut. 6:4; Matt. 28:19; 2 Cor.13:14).
3. We teach that Jesus Christ is the second Person of the Trinity, possessing all the divine excellencies, and in these He is coequal, consubstantial, and coeternal with the other Persons of the Trinity (Jn. 10:30, 14:9). In His incarnation, the eternally existing second Person of the Trinity accepted all the essential characteristics of humanity and so became the God-Man (Phil. 2:5-8; Col. 2:9). Furthermore, we teach that our Lord Jesus Christ was virgin-born (Matt. 1:23-25), that He was God in flesh (Jn. 1:1,14), that He lived a sinless life (Heb. 4:15), that He accomplished redemption through the shedding of His blood and sacrificial death on the cross, which was voluntary, substitutionary, propitiatory, and redemptive (Jn. 10:15; Rom. 3:24-25, 5:8; 1 Pet. 2:24), that He was resurrected from the grave and is now ascended to the right hand of the Father, where He now mediates as our Advocate and High Priest (Matt. 28:6; Luke 24:38-39; Acts 2:30-31; Heb. 7:25; 1 Jn. 2:1), and that He will return and establish His kingdom on earth and will judge all mankind (Jn. 5:22-23; Acts 1:9-11; 1 Cor. 3:10-15; Rev. 20).
4. We teach that the Holy Spirit is the third Person of the Trinity, being coequal and consubstantial with the Father and the Son (Matt. 28:19; Acts 5:3-4; 1 Cor. 12:4-6; 2 Cor. 13:14). The present ministry of the Holy Spirit is to glorify Christ by regenerating, indwelling, sanctifying, instructing, empowering and sealing (Jn. 16:13-16; Rom. 8:9; Eph. 1:13, 5:18; Titus 3:5).
5. We teach that the entire human race was created in the image of God and, as such, its chief end is to glorify God and enjoy Him forever (Gen. 1:26-27; Col. 1:16). However, when Adam sinned, the corrupted nature of Adam was transmitted to all people, the Lord Jesus Christ being the only exception (Gen. 3:1-19; Rom. 5:12-19). All men are sinners by nature and by choice (Rom. 3:9-23). With no recuperative powers to enable him to recover, mankind is hopelessly lost and his salvation is thereby wholly of God's grace through the redemptive work of our Lord Jesus Christ (Eph. 2:1-3, 2:8-9). Those persons who die without saving faith in the redemption of Christ will be committed to an eternal conscious punishment in the lake of fire (Rev. 20:11-15).
6. We teach that all who place their faith in Jesus Christ are immediately placed through the Holy Spirit into one unified spiritual body, the church (1 Cor. 12:12-13), of which Christ is intimately connected as the Head (Col. 1:18). The establishment and continuity of local churches is the God-ordained method for propagating the gospel of Jesus Christ, and members of the spiritual body are directed to associate themselves together in local assemblies (Acts 20:17-18, Heb. 10:25). As such, this organization serves the church in presenting and propagating the faith once for all delivered to the saints.

Who We Are

Students who enroll and are accepted into the Youth Ministry Institute receive a unique experience in both the academic realm and in ministry. While most college students focus mainly on academics, the YMI is designed to immerse students not only in academics, but hands on ministry experience as well. The Institute seeks to help develop students personally, spiritually and emotionally while they receive ministry training through the opportunities of Teens for Christ. Academically, students will have the opportunity to earn an accredited degree online with Clark Summit University, Liberty University or Regent University, as well as take in-house classes.

Mission

The YMI exists to glorify God by developing, equipping, and training fully committed followers of Jesus Christ for a lifetime of ministry locally and abroad.

Values

Equipping

We equip fully committed followers for a lifetime of ministry. This equipping is holistic, not only encompassing academic training, but hands-on experience, emotional development, physical care and spiritual growth.

Community

We believe as the body of Christ it is vital that we live in community. The community we are called to builds one another up, challenges, corrects, and supports one another as we grow in relationships.

Scripture

We believe that all Scripture, Old Testament and New Testament, is given by inspiration of God. The Scriptures were designed for our practical instruction and therefore, they are our authority in all matters.

Dependence

We believe apart from God we can do nothing and therefore, in all things, we are utterly dependent on him. This reflects itself in an attitude of humility within relationships, work and leisure.

CODE OF CONDUCT

The Youth Ministry Institute recognizes the value in maintaining certain behavioral standards that enhance the atmosphere of the ministry, foster fellowship with other Christians from a variety of backgrounds and, in many instances, strengthen our testimony to the world in which we live. In this light, The Youth Ministry Institute asks its YMI students and staff to be supportive of this behavioral standard.

The Youth Ministry Institute reserves the right to dismiss any student who, in its best judgment, does not conform either to the stated regulations governing his/her conduct or to the conduct and/or the expressed principles and policies of the ministry. Students will receive a student handbook during their first week of the program. If a prospective student desires to see a handbook before applying, they may request a copy.

In making application to become a student of The Youth Ministry Institute, I agree with the doctrinal and teaching positions as described in this application (with my stated exceptions) and, with my signature, state: On my honor, as a Christian, I pledge myself to abide by the regulations of the administration and staff; to protect the glorious and honorable name of Jesus Christ, and to cooperate with all members of The Youth Ministry and Teen For Christ family in maintaining a spirit of Christian fellowship.
